

Never too sinful...

Joshua 2:1-14

John 4:39-42

Never too sinful...

Who does God speak to?

Who can do God's work?

Who can be saved?

We know the answer to the last question...

(John 3:16)

... but what about the first two?

...to make contact

God met both women when before they turned their lives around

But they had already begun to reach out to him

Rahab had been hearing about the Israelites and their God (Joshua 2:10)

The Samaritan women was waiting for the messiah (John 4:25)

...to change the world

The Samaritan women persuaded 'many of the people' to come to Jesus (John 4:39)

Rahab helped the Israelites move into the promised land

And she founded an important dynasty

Matthew 1:5: 'Salmon married Rahab, their son was Boaz, who married Ruth. They had Obed, grandfather of David. David was the ancestor of Jesus.'

Who do you know...

...who is too sinful to

... to start a relationship with Jesus

... to change the world

... to change a life

... to be accepted into a church?
